

OUR BROADCAST AREA

More than half a million lucky Victorians live in places where they can tune in to the most dynamic community radio station in Australia.

Tens of thousands of open-minded listeners regularly turn to 94.7 The Pulse for honest unbiased news from around the district, special interest programs, talk-back opportunities and their favourite music.

This is not a radio station that is played in the background.

You can speak directly to this audience and support the valuable community service we deliver.

A tax deductible sponsorship package costs less than you think!
